"My love is my life. I am love. I love you with an everlasting love. My love has been put into you with your New-Birth. You are anointed by my love, to bear it, wear it, & share it with everyone you can, everywhere you can, in every way you can. Everyone is born with a hunger for love. Only my love can fully satisfy, which it does as anyone receives it, interacts with it, & soaks in it! My love is good for what ails you, & my love will never fail you!"
